Dear INCH FAMILY,

Thank you for sailing with us on the Disney Dream. It is truly our pleasure to have you sailing Back to Back with us.

As you will be continuing your vacation onboard, a unique embarkation process will be in place in Port Canaveral on December, 28th 2015. Whilst you are welcome to disembark the ship any time prior to 9:00am following the ship receiving clearance from officials, if you have any questions regarding the debark process please feel free to contact us at Guest services.

Due to US Customs regulations, you are required to disembark the ship no later than 9:00am via the Deck 3 Midship gangway. Please remember to have your signed Customs Declaration form and proof of citizenship ready for inspection.

After Customs, please proceed to the Terminal atrium and take the escalators upstairs to the 2nd level where you can check-in at any open check-in station for you next cruise and re-board the ship. Please have your cruise documentation for the next cruise ready as this will expedite the embarkation process for you. Please be advised that clearance for re-boarding the ship will be no earlier than 10:30am.

If you are planning to go ashore for the day, please ensure you are back onboard no later than 3:30pm.

Please find enclosed the forms that need to be filled out before you check-in again on debarkation morning:

- ☉ Payment Authorization Form (the credit card information we have currently will be removed from our system at the end of this voyage).
- ☉ Cruise Contract

On debarking day your luggage can remain onboard. If you are changing staterooms our shipboard teams will be happy to transfer the luggage for you. Please have all items packed and ready by 8:00am. Please remove any old luggage tags from your luggage and leave it inside your stateroom. Every effort will be made to prepare your new room as a priority and we anticipate having your room ready by 11:30am.

For your comfort and relaxation on board the Disney Dream, Cove Café on Deck 11 forward (for adults only) and Vista Café on Deck 4 midship (for families), will be open, for complimentary tea, coffee and pastries until embarkation commences at 11:20am.

Please be aware that all ship's services' will be suspended between voyages, and maintenance work may be happening in several areas. We ask you to please use caution when moving around the ship during this time.

If there is anything we can do to ensure that your stay with us is most comfortable, please feel free to contact us.

Many Thanks,
Isabelle Gallic
